Jozy Triangel is a company that has experienced the heart of the people, that is why every tour is not only a design but a genuine life experience. We specialize in the art of tours, as well as providing art on tours.

We expand to a variety of experiences from city tours, nature tours, cultural tours, landscape tours, lifestyle tours, historical tours, shopping tours, picnics tours for lovebirds, family and friends, we also have tours that focus on present day South Africa.

Jozy Triangel is also open to tailor making tours, we believe in fusion, because South Africa is a melting pot for many nations. We go the extra mile to make sure your family and friends have lifetime experiences and memories that will remind your offspring and generations to come about your life journey. Jozy Triangel is curios, ready to listen then execute your needs.

On our tours, even if we are not there, the people are. We provide you with guides that are not only informative, they come with experience in their field of expertise, the recognition and care between you, the guide and the communities is real. Every experience is filled with so much life, fun, knowledge and love that will make you discover a new you.

BIO written by EX-Ambassador of Italy

Bongani Mamba, affectionately known as King Mamba, This South African artist, writer, songwriter, vocalist, and entrepreneur in the tourism sector is a true polymath, whose creativity knows no bounds.

Bongani Mamba's journey through the world of art is nothing short of remarkable. As a multidisciplinary and ambidextrous fine artist, graphic designer (known for his transition from 2D to 3D drawings), painter, graffiti artist, and street art connoisseur, he has left an indelible mark on the creative landscape of South Africa. Not just a visual artist, Mamba is also a qualified historian, boasting an impressive 25 accreditations for storytelling and writing. His work is a testament to his deep understanding of culture, history, and the power of storytelling.
